[Numb. 834.]

The South-Carolina Gazette.

From Monday April 30th, to Monday May 7th, 1750.

From the Gentleman's Magazine, for December, 1749.

RUSSIA. Petersburgh.

A FIRE has conſumed the new opera houſe here, with all the decorations belonging to it, to the value of 200,000 rubles.—Since the Coſſacks of Kirſis have put themſelves under the protection of the Empreſs, our commerce has been improv'd; for Kirſis abounding with ſilver mines, the ſilver brought from thence this year amounts to 40,000 lb. weight.—This court demands that the ſtates of Sweden ſhould ſolemnly confirm and guaranty the declaration which the prince ſucceſſor to the throne of that kingdom has made that he never will change the form of government.

GERMANY.

The K. of Pruſſia has made proviſion to pay off the Engliſh and Dutch the capitals they advanced on the mines of Sileſia, &c. with the arrears of intereſt; but delay'd it till he can procure the Empire's guaranty, in form, for that principality.

Vienna. A woollen manufactury is vigorouſly carrying on in Hungary, and the imperial court hopes that it will vie not only with thoſe of Sileſia, but with the beſt in Europe; as the wool of Macedonia and Albania, which is brought for it from Turkey, is ſcarce inferior to the Spaniſh in fineneſs.

SPAIN.

All commanders of regiments have orders to compleat them by the middle of March; and the marine is improving with great aſſiduity, that the expedition againſt the Algerines may take place early in the ſpring.——The new great road made by the King's order between the two Caſtiles, begins at Guadalaxara, in New-Caſtile, and reaches to the top of the mountain that ſeparates the two countries, in length 5430 fathoms, and from thence to Eſpinard in Old Caſtile 2970 fathoms; it has on it 283 aqueducts, ſeven fine bridges, and is reckon'd a maſter piece of art.

ITALY.

The port erecting at Niſſa-Limpia, near Nice, by order of the K. of Sardinia, is in great forwardneſs, will be very commodious, contain a great number of ſhips, and be well ſecured from the winds.——The new Duke of Parma refuſes the inveſtiture of either the pope, or the emperor, who both claim a ſuperiority over the dutchies of Parma, Placentia, and Guaſtalla, as fiefs of the Empire or Church.

FRANCE.

An army of 30,000 men will be formed in Dauphiny by the middle of March, to ſecure the peace of Italy; and another of 40,000 in Alſace, to act in concert. This laſt is to be commanded by marſhal Lowendahl, who has an augmentation to his appointments of 30,000 livres.—A very extraordinary bird has been taken in Dauphiny, entirely white, partly like a ſwan, and having a fine red bill; its length from head to tail was 16 feet; in its ſtomach were 35 pounds of fiſh.—An arreſt has been publiſh'd exempting wool, cotton, hemp, flax, camels and goat's hair imported, from paying any duty.—The dauphineſs is again declared pregnant.—The marquis de Mirepeix, ambaſſador from the court at London, having demanded the delivering up of M. Moynier, a quarter maſter who fled to Jerſey with the money of his regiment, could get no other anſwer than, 'that as no cartel or convention is ſubſiſting between the two nations, for returning deſerters or fugitives, his Britannic majeſty declined giving orders to arreſt M. Moynier.' However, as an exchange of priſoners taken on both ſides in the E. Indies, at the ſiege of Pondicherry, is ſettled with the E. of Albemarle, and alſo the evacuation of Tobago, 'tis expected that all other differences whatſoever will ſoon be amicably adjuſted.

HOLLAND.

The Dutch were in great hopes of reſtoring credit, in conſequence of the new duties impoſed on arable lands, firing, black cattle and horſes, which commenced with their new year. But great oppoſition was made to it at Haerlem. Fifty dragoons, who enter'd the town to awe the burghers were diſmiſſed by the magiſtrates, upon which the populace roſe, ſhut the gates, and beſet the town-houſe declaring againſt the new tax. But the Prince of Orange being inform'd of what had paſs'd, ſent Gen. Cornable with a ſtrong party of Dutch and Swiſs guards, and ſome cavalry to ſupport the collectors; who ordering his men to force the gates, the burghers fired and wounded a ſerjeant; the ſoldiers return'd the fire, forced the gate, and march'd to the market-place, where another ſkirmiſh enſued, in which four or five burghers being kill'd, and ten or twelve wounded, the reſt retired. Mean time a deputation of eight burghers waited on the Pr. demanding, among other things, an abolition of the taxes; but he committed them to priſon, and has order'd ſeveral of the mutineers that are ſecured, to be rigorouſly puniſhed.

From the Gentleman's Magazine, for January, 1750.

RUSSIA.

Her imperial Ruſſian majeſty, accompanied by the grand duke and dutcheſs, arriv'd at Peterſburgh from Moſcow the laſt day of the year; the chief officers of the army and navy had propoſed to ſet out directly for Peterſburg to pay their compliments, but were order'd not to abandon their poſts.

SWEDEN.

A ſcheme is laid for making a canal from Stockholm to Gottenburg, which will open a communication between the Baltic Sea and the weſtern ocean, ſo that ſhips may paſs without being obliged to go thro' the Sound, which is a great way about, and ſometimes dangerous. It is computed that the execution of this enterprize will take up 3 years, and coſt ſeveral millions. A ſubſcription will be open'd, by which thoſe who advance money for the undertaking will have 6 per Cent. till it is finiſh'd, after which the intereſt will be 12 per Cent. till 1850, without hazard or reduction, or being obliged to withdraw the capital before that time; foreigners may ſubſcribe to it.

GERMANY,

Vienna. Count Bentinck, the Dutch ambaſſador, has ſucceeded in the affair which he had to ſollicit about the barrier towns. If it was that her imperial majeſty ſhould accept the entire garriſoning of them, ſhe might have wiſhed to have had it in the late war.

Manheim, Jan. 16. The waters of the Rhine being fallen much lower within theſe few months than they were ever known to be in the memory of man, hath given us an opportunity of diſcovering the ruins of an old caſtle in the middle of the Rhine, a league and a half from this place, near Neckeran, oppoſite to Altrip. Several lovers of antiquities have been curious to ſee it, as we have no hiſtorian that makes mention of a caſtle in that place. All that antient hiſtory furniſhes with relation thereto, can only ſerve for a foundation to conjecture that it is the fort which the Romans built on an eminence called Sandberg, near Altrip, then known by the name of Alta Ripa, and provided with a ſtrong garriſon; and that, conſequently, it is one of the fifty caſtles which the celebrated Druſus, general in the reign of Auguſtus (and the firſt Roman general, who advanced on the other ſide of the Rhine as far as the ocean) erected to cover his conqueſts againſt the attempt of the Germans.

ITALY.

The

The K. of Sardinia has given orders for compleating all his regiments, his majesty intending to have all his forces on the same footing as at the conclusion of the war.——The Island of Corsica is speedily to be given up to Don Philip in consideration of the sum of 7 millions of piasters, which the K. of Spain is to pay for it to the republic of Genoa.——His Sicilian Majesty, in obedience to the court of Madrid, has order'd all the shipbuilders in the several ports of Naples and Sicily, to be employ'd in augmenting his naval force. On the 24th instant the jubilee began at Rome, when the pope in his pontifical habit, attended by several cardinals, archbishops and bishops, went in solemn procession to St. Peter's Church, and perform'd the ceremony of opening the gate. While several other churches were open'd by cardinals; the concourse of people was very great.——Three new gold pieces have been lately coined at Naples; an oncia of the value of 6 ducats, a pistole of 4, and a zeckeen of 2; which species, amounting in the whole to 400,000 ducats, the king has caused to be distributed amongst the public banks of that city, for the conveniency of commerce, and for the better promoting their circulation in his dominions.——His majesty has order'd all the militia of his dominions to be put on the footing of the regular troops, which are to be compleated, and learn the Prussian exercise.

SPAIN.

St Sebastian, Jan. 4. An advice boat from the Carracca's, having brought the Guipuscoa company an account that the inhabitants persisted in their resolution of carrying on commerce independent of the company, and had armed 6000 Negroes, in order to oppose any succours which the company's agents may receive from Spain, the managers begged his majesty's further protection and assistance.
